V. Student Discipline

A. Student 18-I

Chairman Jenkins turned the hearing over to Doug Nelson as hearing officer, the duly appointed hearing officer for the purposes of administering the hearing. Mr. Nelson stated that his role as a hearing officer is to conduct the hearing in a way that the Board can hear all the information from the administration, the family, and the student regarding the incidents involved and the situation so they can make an informed and appropriate decision for the benefit of the family and the safety of other students because both interests are important. The student will be known as 18-I for their protection and privacy. The proceedings will not be discussed outside this room by the administration or the Board and will be placed in the student's educational file. Mr. Nelson stated that the hearing is being recorded so that the administration or the family will be able to refer to it later if needed. A packet of all records that have come to the Board's attention relating to this incident were given to the student's family; the packet also includes the Board policies and Student Code of Conduct which relate to this hearing.
